We just celebrated baby dedication in our church, but what does it really mean to be dedicated to something? During the baby dedication we committed ourselves to train our children to be fully devoted to God and to show them His unconditional love. It is easy to stand in front of the congregation and repeat the words and make our commitments. It is much more difficult to show our baby God's unconditional love at 1:00AM when they won't stop crying or teach them the ways of God when we come home exhausted from a long day at work, but we do it anyway because we have dedicated ourselves to these children. I think that a good definition of dedication would be: to commit to something even when you know it is going to be difficult. So what are you dedicated to: growing your relationship with God, building up your family, doing your job, serving your church? Those are some of the things we are suppose to say, but to what have you really dedicated yourself? During this coming week take some time to reflect on what you are dedicated to. Jesus gave us an easy method; "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Luke 12:34). So look at where you are spending your money, look at where you are spending your time, and look at where you are spending your energy. Then ask yourself if this, "Is really what you want your life to be dedicated to?" If the answer is yes then good job, but if the answer is no then please take some time to ask yourself what needs to change to make the answer yes. Well, my baby is calling so I must go demonstrate my dedication to him. God bless you all,

Leslie

GUESS WHAT?
 There are 32 opportunities to serve the Lord right here at MHBC, and it may be an area that you haven't considered too. In the nursery ministry during Extended Session we have 32 openings available to you. Please consider ministering in one or more of these places of opportunity won't you? You won't be disappointed and we would be blessed to have you! See Rae Rieber for details of this wonderful ministry.
