Help Needed

I want to be a learner all my days. There are books to read, places to visit, people to know, experiences to have that make the future an exciting adventure. I came across this list of things people of different ages learned as they grew. Some have wisdom, some humor but all have at least a grain of truth:

I've learned that I like my teacher because she cries when we sing "Silent Night" Age 6

I've learned that you can't hide a piece of broccoli in a glass of milk Age 7

I've learned that when I wave to people in the country, they stop and wave back. Age 9

I've learned that just when I get my room the way I like it Mom makes me clean it up Age 13

I've learned that if you want to cheer yourself up you should try to cheer someone else. Age 14

I've learned that brushing my child's hair is one of life's great pleasures. Age 26

I've learned that if someone says something unkind about me, I must live so that no one will believe it. Age 39

I've learned that there are people who love you dearly but just don't know how to show it.. Age 41

I've learned that children and grandparents are natural allies. Age 47

I've learned that singing "Amazing Grace" can lift my spirits for hours. Age 49

I've learned that making a living is not the same thing as making a life. Age 58

I've learned that life sometimes gives you a second chance. Age 62

I've learned that whenever I decide something with kindness, I usually make the right decision. Age 66

I've learned that everyone can use a prayer. Age 72

I've learned that even when I have pains, I don't have to be one. Age 82

I've learned that I still have a lot to learn. Age 92

Whatever our age, we do realize that there is much to learn. Our church offers a number of "learning" opportunities---Bible study, ministries to others, worship times, music, small group activities to name a few. Bring your open and eager mind to every experience of life.

God wants us to be learners all our days.

Sincerely,

Guy Futral
