Watermelon Festival

Watermelon Festival Volunteers Needed

Easter is barely over. Memorial Day is still weeks away. And the summer doesn't officially begin until June 21. So why are we already talking about an event that won't happen until July? Because the Watermelon Festival is one of the biggest events we do at Melbourne Heights each year, and it takes time to plan for it.

We want to make this year's festival the best it's ever been, but we need your help to do it. There's a menu that needs to be planned and food that needs to be purchased. There's space that needs to be allocated and set up that needs to happen. There's vendors that need to be contacted and performers to be booked. So we need volunteers to begin organizing this year's event.

So if you love our annual Watermelon Festival and want it to continue to grow into a bigger event each year, and if you're willing to volunteer some of your time over the next two months to help us plan it, please contact Adam Schell or Barb Orr.

And please feel free to tell us your favorite parts of the Watermelon Festival and offer your suggestions on how we can make it better this year. And don't forget to join us for all the fun on July 12.

The Lord added and we welcome to the Melbourne Heights church family:

NO EVENING SERVICES

There will be no evening services on Sunday May 11, 2014 in observance of Mother's Day.

Thank You!

How can I say thanks? How can I express my gratitude for all that you have done? You have given so much of your time, energy, and resources to make the evening of my ordination possible. You have left an indelible imprint on my heart and the hearts of so many others as a result. I will carry these memories with me for the rest of my life.
